Privacy

These details are being collected by Lifesaving South Africa for the purpose of registering you as a Lifesaving Sport Official. The personal information will be disclosed only to those requiring the information for the purpose of assessing your application. You have the right to access the information held about you by Lifesaving SA.

Recognition of Prior Learning forms part of the registration process.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is the acknowledgment of skills and knowledge held as a result of formal training, work experience and/or life experience. RPL will be granted upon approval of the Advisory Board for Sport, deeming that the form and evidence supplied satisfactorily meets the criteria.

Evidence needs to be supplied to support the application for RPL. Experience can be through practical application, courses attended or life experience. Evidence can consist of: certificates of existing award, relevant tertiary qualifications, references, assignments, training programs etc.

If you don't have evidence to substantiate your claim, but consider that you could demonstrate your competence to Sport Committee; please note this in the relevant section. You may be asked to demonstrate this competency.
